

100 Year Anniversary of The Swedish Chamber of Commerce in France

PROGRAM

The 2015 centenary year of the Swedish Chamber of Commerce will be a year full of events and activities entirely dedicated to the furtherance of Swedish-French business relations and the Swedish companies in France. It will be a moment to look back at the richness and variety of the Swedish company history in France and together prepare for the challenges to overcome in today's and tomorrow's competitive global world.

The principal events are:

6 JANUARY 2015 – OFFICIAL INAUGURATION CEREMONY AT OPERA GARNIER

On the occasion of the guest performance of the Swedish Royal Ballet, presenting Julia & Romeo by the world famous Swedish choreographer and dancer Mats Ek, the Swedish Chamber of Commerce, in collaboration with the Paris Opera, organizes a unique inauguration of its centenary year on the premier evening with 300 participating personalities within the business, political and cultural fields from both Sweden and France.

The opening of the 100-year anniversary will take place in the especially reserved "La Rotonde" in the Opera. Invited special guests include the Swedish ambassador to France, Her Excellency Veronika Wand-Danielsson, the French Ambassador to Sweden, His Excellency Jacques Lapouge, and top executives from the French and Swedish economic world.

The Ballet performance is followed by a gastronomic dinner in the Opera's Grand Foyer, dressed in unique floral decorations for this gala evening. In addition to the Chamber participants, the artists and high patrons of the Paris Opera will be present.

L'Opéra National de Paris welcomes the Swedish Royal Ballet, one of Europe's oldest dance companies founded in 1773 by King Gustav III. In conjunction with its 240th anniversary, it presents the ballet Julia & Romeo by Mats Ek.

Like the Swedish society and its enterprises Mats Ek's work is characterized by openness, creativity and innovation, important symbols also for the competitiveness of the companies, which the Chamber wishes to highlight in the context of its anniversary.

14 SEPTEMBER 2015 – FRENCH-SWEDISH BUSINESS FORUM IN STOCKHOLM

A "French-Swedish Business Forum" at the Grand Hotel in Stockholm is organized in cooperation with the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, Business Sweden, the French Embassy in Stockholm, and Invest in France in order to promote Swedish-French business development and know-how.
